

HOSPITALITY EXPERIENCES

Acknowledgement of Country

betr Darwin Triple Crown Supercars respectfully acknowledges the past, present and emerging Traditional Owners of the beautiful land on which we live, work and gather. We respect the cultural practices and traditions of our hosts, recognise the importance of sustainably caring for our country, and commit to being respectful visitors to traditional lands.

WELCOME TO THE 2026 BETR DARWIN TRIPLE CROWN

Welcome to one of the most anticipated weekends on the Territory calendar.

The betr Darwin Triple Crown Supercars Indigenous Round brings together the best of Supercars racing and genuine Top End hospitality, where high octane action meets the relaxed, easy-going atmosphere that's distinctly Darwin.

Across the weekend, you'll enjoy great company, delicious catering, and some of the most spectacular track views in Australia. It's a chance to connect, unwind and experience one of the Territory's biggest sporting events in comfort and style.

We're proud to share this event with you and thank you for being part of it. Whether this is your first Darwin Triple Crown or you're joining us again, we hope you enjoy everything that makes this weekend so special; the racing, the people and the Territory spirit that ties it all together.

Welcome to race weekend. We're glad you're here.

HOSPITALITY EXPERIENCES

EVENT OVERVIEW

From 19–21 June 2026, Hidden Valley Raceway will come alive for the betr Darwin Triple Crown Supercars Indigenous Round. Marking 28 years of Supercars in Darwin, the 2026 event is set to be the biggest yet.

For the first time, fans will enjoy three full days of Supercars Championship racing with a thrilling new format featuring a 100km sprint on Friday, and 200km races on Saturday and Sunday – delivering more on-track action and reinforcing the Triple Crown’s reputation as one of the most exciting rounds on the calendar.

Adding to the action, the Dunlop Super2 Series will make its Darwin debut, while the Porsche Paynter Dixon Carrera Cup Australia Championship returns with a refreshed format featuring two 45-minute races of non-stop competition.

All weekend hospitality tickets include Friday General Admission access (No suite access Friday).

WHY CHOOSE HOSPITALITY?

There's no better way to experience the betr Darwin Triple Crown than from the comfort of a hospitality suite.

From air-conditioned spaces overlooking the track to relaxed outdoor terraces close to the action, our hospitality packages bring together great food, cold drinks, and unbeatable views... all with that unmistakable Territory feel.

Whether you're entertaining clients, rewarding staff, or simply treating yourself and your mates to something special, hospitality offers the best of both worlds: the thrill of Supercars racing and the comfort of being fully looked after.

Enjoy premium catering, access to the Pit Paddock, and the freedom to take in the racing at your own pace without missing a moment.

TRIPLE CROWN CLUB

WHERE COOL COMFORT MEETS THE ACTION

Overlooking the Straight, the Triple Crown Club delivers the buzz of race day with all the perks of air-conditioned comfort. This shared, cocktail-style suite is relaxed, social and built for those who like their racing loud, lively and close to the heart of the action.

What's Included

- Suite access Saturday and Sunday
- Six-hours of hospitality each day featuring a generous menu of crowd favourites, designed for a cocktail-style setting with plenty of easy, grab-and-go options
- Beer, wine, cider, sparkling and non-alcoholic drinks served icy cold — just like the air-con inside!
- Spirits available for purchase
- Shared tables, unallocated seating
- Air-conditioning and exclusive balcony overlooking Pit Straight
- Internal screens with live race feed
- Souvenir lanyard
- Designated restroom facilities
- Direct access to the Pit Paddock
- Hospitality shuttle service
- Friday General Admission ticket included for weekend pass holders (no suite access Friday)

What to Expect

The Triple Crown Club is where comfort meets atmosphere – cool inside, electric outside. With high bars and cocktail-style service, there's no reserved seating here – just the freedom to move, mingle and enjoy the racing your way. Positioned right above the starting grid, it's easy to shift between the buzz of the balcony and the laid-back comfort of the suite. Social, comfortable and unmistakably Territory, this is the perfect spot to soak up the Supercars energy in style.

Need the respite of air-conditioning but still craving a reserved seat? Motorsport House might be more your pace.

Prices: $1,200 (Adult Weekend Pass – Sat/Sun)
18+ only. No children permitted.

SHARED EXPERIENCES

MOTORSPORT HOUSE

THE FINEST WAY TO EXPERIENCE THE ACTION

Overlooking Hidden Valley's iconic Hairpin, Motorsport House delivers an elevated experience for guests who appreciate premium comfort, great company and effortless service. The atmosphere is refined and social, with beautifully presented food, cool air-conditioning and a relaxed vibe that feels distinctly Territory. Every moment of on-track action is captured on internal screens, so you can follow the racing without leaving the comfort of your table, or step outside to feel the roar of the track and catch the action live from the balcony.

What's Included

- Suite access Saturday and Sunday
- Six-hours of premium hospitality each day with a refined menu featuring Territory flavours and a Sunday seafood highlight
- Beer, wine, cider, sparkling and non-alcoholic drinks included, with spirits served from 1pm
- Reserved tables of 10 (book together to sit with colleagues or friends)
- Air-conditioning and limited capacity balcony overlooking the Hairpin
- Internal screens with live race feed
- Special guest appearances throughout the weekend
- Direct access to the Pit Paddock
- Hospitality shuttle service
- Souvenir stubby cooler and lanyard
- Dedicated restroom facilities
- Free public transport to and from the event
- Friday General Admission ticket included for weekend pass holders (no suite access Friday)

What to Expect

Motorsport House is all about relaxed luxury – a place to unwind, connect and enjoy the best of Territory hospitality. With limited balcony space, most guests prefer to take in the racing from the comfort of their table, where the live broadcast keeps every moment in view. It's social, stylish and designed for those who love the atmosphere and the company as much as the sport itself.

Love the air-con but want to be closer to the on-track action? Triple Crown Club might be more your speed.

Prices: Adult Weekend Pass (Sat/Sun): $1,230 | Table of 10 Weekend Pass: $12,300
